SPECIALISED, EXCLUSIVE, TRIPLE CERTIFIED PROGRAM ON OFFER FOR THE FIRST TIME ON THE CONTINENT, IN LAGOS NIGERIA

PROGRAM ON INVESTMENT ARBITRATION
Lagos, Nigeria • July 8-19, 2019

With the current levels of investment on the continent, arbitration is an increasingly important area of knowledge and specialization that calls for more participation from African counsel and arbitrators. The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), Georgetown University Law Center (Georgetown Law) and the International Law Institute – African Centre for Legal Excellence (ILI-ACLE) are delighted to bring to Lagos a high-level, intensive, practical and engaging 10-day program on Investment Arbitration especially designed for legal professionals in the public and private sector around Africa.

Learning Outcome: By the end of this premium program, participants will have enhanced knowledge and skills in navigating the practice and procedures in investment arbitration, particularly the special procedures in ICSID arbitration.

Fee: At a specially discounted fee of US$1,500 per participant, learn first-hand from, and engage with ICSID counsel, other seasoned arbitration practitioners, and highly experienced participants from across Africa and beyond. Places are limited so apply now and earn certification jointly awarded by ICSID, Georgetown Law and ILI-ACLE.

Enquiries: Get in touch to learn more about other Georgetown Law certified programs we have on offer in Johannesburg, Lagos, Nairobi and other locations. Programs include:
• Negotiating Oil and Gas Contracts
• Managing a Law Practice
• Innovation and Entrepreneurship
• Advanced Management Skills
• Complex Negotiations

Email: lawexecediliale@georgetown.edu for application details or visit Website: www.iliacle.org/executiveeducation
Phone: +256 754500504 (WhatsApp no)/+256 753979825

GEORGETOWN UNIVERSITY LAW CENTER EXECUTIVE EDUCATION IN AFRICA

Kampala • Nairobi • Lagos • Johannesburg

In Collaboration with International Law Institute-African Centre for Legal Excellence